PENTHOUSE POLAROID PHOTO COMPETITION

Another all-girls effort — this time from photographer Karen Daly and model Amanda Allen — wins this month's Penthouse/Polaroid Photo Competition. The Cairns girls win a choice of Polaroid prizes. They may take the Polaroid SLR 680 AutoFocus/AutoStrobe Camera or the Polaroid 35mm AutoProcess system, the package that eliminates the delay and expense of sending your transparencies away to be processed. Photo subjects in the Polaroid competition may also have the chance to become a Penthouse centrefold and pick up a $5000 modelling fee.

NEVER MISS A CHANCE

H ave you seen this girl before? Two pictures of 23-year-old Karina Schulyer appeared in the Penthouse International section of an earlier issue. Two snaps were enough to spark the imaginations of many readers and even prompt a bundle of fanmail. A full pictorial should set imaginations on fire.

DREAM TIME

PHOTOGRAPHY
BY BOB WATSON

Beautiful Bobbie Wallbank provides Penthouse readers with another first in '84. When the lithe 23-year-old model agreed to become our December Pet Of The Month she was delighted to go down in magazine history as the world's first aboriginal centerfold. Bobbie (that's short for Bronwyn) was born of a full-blooded aboriginal father and a part-aboriginal mother, and she's justly proud of her indigenous heritage.

NRA Permit No. TCB/47039 Issued under the Lorraine & An Uninc. Act

When lovely Valerie Milton was a little tyke she suffered from an unfortunate speech defect. She struggled hard to overcome her impediment, however, and now the 22-year-old speaks so perfectly that she works as a TV weather girl in Tucson, Arizona. Valerie maintains that with a little determination a girl can do anything. And that's not just a statement she pays lip service to.

JANET

Life can be a hell of a grind when you're a singer with a frog in your throat. Which explains why Janet Dupres, who sings and dances at a Parisian nightspot called Le Chat Noir, has been miming her act during the past week. "It could prove a blessing in disguise," whispered 20-year-old Janet. "I'm told Marcel Marceau got his break the same way."

It was aristocratic Lydia Chambers' rebellious streak which prompted her to strip for the camera. When she first saw these photos, 19-year-old Lydia, the daughter of a former Tory backbencher, nearly choked on a cucumber sandwich, and wondered with a mischievous glint in her eye, "I'm so awful. What on earth will daddy say?"
